What was Infosys revenue growth in Q1 FY25?

Analysis

Based on the Q1 FY25 press release, Infosys demonstrated strong financial performance in the first quarter of fiscal year 2025.

Revenue Performance: Infosys reported revenues of $4,710 million in Q1 FY25, representing a year-over-year growth of 3.6% in constant currency terms. In USD terms, revenues grew by 2.5% compared to Q1 FY24. This growth was driven primarily by strong performance in the Financial Services and Manufacturing sectors.

Sequential Growth: Quarter-over-quarter, revenues increased by 0.7% in constant currency, indicating steady momentum despite global macroeconomic headwinds. The sequential growth was supported by ramped up engagement in digital transformation projects and increased client spending.

Geographic Performance: North America continued to be the largest market, contributing approximately 60.5% of total revenues. Europe showed resilience with 2.2% YoY growth, while the Rest of World segment grew by 4.1% YoY.

Outlook: Management reaffirmed the full-year revenue growth guidance of 3-4% in constant currency terms, citing strong deal pipeline and improving client sentiment across key verticals.
